Hi Amy,

Thank you for your input. I am not sure, yet, what we will need and thank you for willingness to work with us today. Just to check, are there any times that you would not be available?

Thanks!
Debra

Hi,

Jan forwarded me the latest version of the decision document this morning so my team could take a final look as I know we were making edits into late afternoon on Weds. I've asked Michael and Kris to look over the eco section just to double check the revisions.

With regards to the Rationale and Risk Mitigation and Erin's comments yesterday on UAE, what do you need from us in terms of that language? We would be happy to help talk it through with you if that would help.

Amy
